

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

BY-LAWS.

*As re-enacted with amendments inserted,
January 2, 1890.*

Pursuant to the authority contained in their Charter, the Worcester Continentals establish the following By-Laws for their government as a military organization of gentlemen of good and honorable citizenship, originally associated and subsequently chosen to membership.

ARTICLE I.

ELECTION AND DISCHARGE OF MEMBERS.

SECTION I. Any person desirous of becoming a member of this organization, shall be required to fill out and sign a blank application, as follows :

APPLICATION FOR MEMBERSHIP.

Worcester Continentals :

I, being desirous of becoming a member of your organization, do hereby represent that my age is over twenty-five years. Residence I agree, if elected, to provide myself within three months from this date with the uniform and equipments adopted by said organization, and that I will obey and abide by all by-laws, rules and regulations which are or may be adopted by the Company for their government.

Fee enclosed, $7.00.

Dated, Worcester 189 .

Signed.....

A fee of seven dollars shall accompany said application, and if the candidate be rejected, it shall be returned to him with his application properly endorsed by the clerk.

The application of any person once rejected by this organization shall not again be received within six months from the date of his rejection. The admission fee shall be deemed a payment of his annual dues for the corporate year in which a successful applicant is elected, and if his election is within two months before the annual meeting, shall be in lieu of the annual dues for the year commencing at that meeting.

SEC. 2. There shall be a committee of five members appointed annually by the Board of Officers hereinafter named, to which shall be referred for report all applications and proposals for membership, and upon the report of the committee any person of the age of twenty-five years may be elected a member by a two-thirds vote of the members present at the meeting, but no person shall be elected a member at a special meeting, unless he shall have been previously publicly proposed, without unanimous consent.

SEC. 3. Any member may be honorably discharged at his own request by a vote of the corps, for any cause ; and any member may be dismissed for conduct either ungentlemanly, unmilitary or in any way casting discredit on the corps, by a two-thirds vote of those present at any meeting called for the purpose, or when previous notice has been given, but only after due hearing. No member shall receive an honorable discharge from the corps until his dues are paid in full.

Any active member may be discharged by a vote of the Corps, for the non-payment of annual dues, assessments or fines, where such dues, assessments or fines, or the one of earliest date remains unpaid more than one year, of which dues, assessments or fines he has had due notice.

SEC. 4. There shall be kept a roll-book in which shall be written the charter and by-laws of the organization to be subscribed, and every member of the Continentals shall subscribe the same on being received into membership.

ARTICLE II.

ORGANIZATION AND OFFICERS.

SEC. 1. This corps in its corporate capacity and for business purposes shall always remain a single organization, and the military officers of the corps hereinafter named shall be also the civil officers of the corporation, and no sub-division of the corps shall have any power to inaugurate, consider, or pass upon any business except as to its own meetings for drill.

SEC. 2. For all purposes of drill and parade members of the corps shall be assigned by the Board of Officers, into four companies, which companies shall be designated by the letters A, B, C, D, and shall be permanent sub-divisions of the corps, it being the duty of the Board of Officers to assign recruits as may be best for the advantage of the corps, and in their discretion to make desirable transfers from company to company.

SEC. 3. The positions of companies in line shall be determined by the rank of their commanding officers according to tactics.

SEC. 4. The officers of the corporation and the military organization shall be a lieutenant-colonel, four captains and four first lieutenants, a clerk and a treasurer, and a staff for the commanding lieutenant-colonel, to be appointed by himself, and to consist of one first lieutenant and adjutant, one first lieutenant and quartermaster, one first lieutenant and commissary, a surgeon with the rank of major, an assistant surgeon with the rank of first lieutenant, and a judge advocate and a chaplain, each with the rank of captain, a sergeant-major and a quartermaster-sergeant, a commissary-sergeant and a hospital steward. The captains and lieutenants shall rank in the order of their election, calculating from the earliest election in continuous service in the same grade. The clerk and treasurer shall rank as first lieutenants and shall serve on the staff.

There shall also be two sergeants for each company.

Whenever the organization shall reach the number of two hundred active members, four second lieutenants may be added to the line officers, and a third and fourth sergeant to each company.

SEC. 5. The lieutenant-colonel, captains, and lieutenants of the line, clerk and treasurer shall be elected by the corps at its annual meeting; the sergeants of the several companies within two weeks after the election of officers, shall be appointed by the captains with the approval of the commanding officer, and their appointment shall be published in special orders from headquarters.

ARTICLE III.

DUTIES OF OFFICERS.

SEC. 1. The lieutenant-colonel shall be the president of the corporation, and also the military commandant of the corps, and shall preside at all meetings of the corporation and corps, at which he is present. In his absence the ranking officer present shall preside, all officers of the line, however, taking precedence over staff officers.

SEC. 2. It shall be the special duty of the treasurer to collect and hold all funds of the corps, except as to such special funds as may be ordered by the corps to be otherwise collected, held and managed, and he shall pay all bills after the same are audited by the auditors. The treasurer's accounts shall be accurately kept, and shall be open to all reasonable inspection. The treasurer shall make detailed reports at all regular meetings. He shall be sworn to the faithful discharge of his duties, and shall be paid for his services fifty dollars annually.

SEC. 3. It shall be the special duty of the clerk to keep the records and rolls of the corps ; to notify members of business meetings by publication in the daily papers or by personal notice, verbally or by mail ; to notify all new members of election, and all members of their discharge or dismissal, and to perform all other duties usually devolving on a clerical or recording officer ; and he shall be sworn to the faithful discharge of his duties, and shall be paid for his services fifty dollars annually.

SEC. 4. The adjutant being the proper officer through whom the commander should issue all military orders, including orders for meetings under arms, if at any time the duties of the adjutant and clerk seem to conflict, the commanding officer shall issue orders through one or the other, or through both of these officers, as the case shall seem to demand.

SEC. 5. The lieutenant-colonel, the four captains and clerk shall constitute a Board of Officers, who shall have the general direction of the business of the corporation subject to the order of the corporation itself, expressed by vote at meetings duly convened, and said Board shall annually appoint the committee on membership herein before provided for, and two or more of their own number to be auditors of the accounts. The Board of Officers may on extraordinary occasions, when the corps cannot well be convened, order a parade of the command, and shall have authority to expend money from the treasury to an amount not exceeding fifty dollars, but it is to be the established rule that the corps shall transact its own business and order its own parades. The Board may also be convened by the commanding officer for advice.

SEC. 6. The duties of the other officers and sergeants shall be such corporate and military duties as usually devolve on such officers.

SEC. 7. All officers and non-commissioned officers of the command shall hold their respective offices until their successors are elected or appointed.

ARTICLE IV.

TACTICS.

The military formation and drill of the corps shall be in single rank, and appropriate to a military body armed only with swords.

ARTICLE V.

INSIGNIA OF RANK OF OFFICERS.

Officers shall wear officers' swords and belts, according to present United States Army usage, and rank shall be designated on epaulets, according to the insignia of rank in the army.

Officers may also wear such decorations as shall be appropriate to their rank.

Staff sergeants and first sergeants shall be designated by red sashes under their white sword belts.

The plume of the lieutenant-colonel shall be white, those of the captains and lieutenants, yellow, those of the staff officers, red, those of the non-commissioned staff, black with red tips, and those of company sergeants and privates, white with black tips.

ARTICLE VI.

HONORARY MEMBERS.

SECTION I. There shall also be a body of honorary members, constituted of gentlemen who desire to associate themselves with the corps without becoming active members thereof, and who shall be elected by a two-thirds vote of the members of the corps, at any meeting, having been first nominated by a member and having applied in writing for admission, and this body shall comprise all gentlemen admitted to honorary membership prior to May 16th, 1888, as well as those elected since that date, under the provisions which follow in Section 5 of this article, and such as may in future be elected thereunder.

No person shall hereafter be admitted as an honorary member under the age of forty-five years unless unable to do military duty by reason of some physical disability.

SEC. 2. Honorary members shall have all privileges of membership except the right to vote in the corps, but they shall be eligible to appointment on committees relative to any excursion, entertainments or other public appearances, and they shall always be regarded as an advisory body, from whom suggestions on all matters shall be proper and will be gladly received.

SEC. 3. Honorary members shall not be assessed for any expenses except that those who may participate in excursions or entertainments shall be liable to the same assessment therefor as the active members.

SEC. 4. Active members may be transferred to the honorary list, where occasion seems to demand such action, by a two-thirds vote of the members present at any regularly convened meeting, but shall pay the sum of five dollars each year while retaining such honorary membership, the first payment to be due and payable on the first Wednesday of May following such transfer.

No active member under forty-five years of age shall be transferred to the honorary list unless unable to perform military duty by reason of physical disability.

SEC. 5. Honorary members of the corps shall be received for a term of not less than three years, and shall then continue honorary members until discharged, and shall pay as a fee for such membership five dollars each year, the first yearly fee to accompany the application, and subsequent fees being due on the first Wednesday of May in each year. In case of rejection, the fee accompanying the application shall be returned.

SEC. 6. Any honorary member may be discharged on his request, in writing, or may be dropped from the roll of honorary members for non-payment of the annual fee, by vote of the corps, after due notice.

ARTICLE VII.

MEETINGS AND QUORUM.

SECTION 1. The annual meeting of the corps shall be held on the first Wednesday in May. Regular meetings shall be held on the first Wednesdays of February, May, August and November.

Special meetings for business or drill may be called by the commanding officer whenever he may think it advisable, and he shall be required to call business meetings on written request of ten members. Twenty members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

There shall be an annual parade of the corps on the last Wednesday in May, and when that day is observed as "Memorial Day," it shall be held on the day following, except that the corps may at the annual meeting, by a two-thirds vote, fix on another day for the parade of that year within two months of the annual meeting.

SEC. 3. Captains shall call frequent meetings of their companies for drill, and the commanding officer may, in his discretion, direct such meetings to be held.

SEC. 4. The commanding officer may order meetings of the officers and non-commissioned officers for instruction when he shall think proper.

ARTICLE VIII.

ASSESSMENTS.

SECTION 1. All assessments voted for ordinary or special purposes shall be assessed on all active members of the corps whether participating or not in the special excursion, entertainment, or other occasion for special assessment; but the assessment for the annual excursion shall not exceed the sum of five dollars to those who do not participate therein.

SEC. 2. There shall be an annual assessment of seven dollars on each active member.

SEC. 3. Any assessment made for the annual excursion, or special assessment, may be remitted by the Board of Officers upon the application of any member in writing, addressed to the clerk, assigning the reason for such application.

SEC. 4. The annual assessment shall be due on the first Wednesday in May, and shall be paid within thirty days therefrom.

The assessment for those not participating in the annual excursion shall be paid within sixty days from the date of the first day of said excursion.

All other assessments shall be paid within sixty days from the date of the occasion for which they are levied.

ARTICLE IX.

FINES.

Members absent from the annual parade at roll-call, shall pay a fine of one dollar, unless excused by the Board of Officers, upon application in writing for excuse addressed to the clerk.

The clerk shall record and report to the treasurer all fines, and the treasurer shall collect the same.

ARTICLE X.

Promptitude on all occasions, willing submission to orders, ready performance of duty, and military bearing at all times are imperatively required for the credit of the corps, and for the discharge of all these duties the personal pride and manly honor of every Continental should be a sufficient pledge.

Officers and non-commissioned officers are expected to be worthy examples of the gentleman soldier, and they are required to yield and exact respect and obedience according to rank and military usages.

ARTICLE XI.

RESIDENCE.

Members shall promptly notify the clerk of any change of residence or address.

ARTICLE XII.

No person not an active or honorary member shall be allowed to wear the uniform of the Continentals, and no member, active or honorary, shall be allowed to wear the same on any public occasion when the command is not in attendance, except by permission of the commanding officer.

ARTICLE XIII.

These by-laws may be added to or amended at any meeting of the corps, at which thirty members are present by a two-thirds vote of those present, provided the addition or amendment has been proposed at the previous meeting, or has been notified to the corps at least two weeks before the meeting at which it is to be voted upon, and no vote amending these by-laws shall be reconsidered at the meeting at which it is adopted, when a less number of members are present than at the time of its passage.
